

PAM HARRIS of Kettering, Ohio, is eighteen years old and attends the University of Dayton where she majors in computer science. She was the valedictorian of her 1980 high school class. Besides twirling, she jogs, plays tennis and likes to bike. Pam enjoys twirling for the competition, traveling, friends she has made, the challenges it offers, and the self discipline required.

